Embassy Suites-Lincoln Guest Speakers: Randy & Carolyn Allen

What is the Coaches Marriage Weekend?

The FCA Coaches Marriage Weekend is an opportunity to get away from the demands of coaching and everyday life to focus on your marriage and prepare for the upcoming season. You'll enjoy a relaxing weekend and God-centered teaching at the beautiful Embassy Suites-Lincoln.

What past attendees are saying:

"Not only did this weekend help us strengthen our relationship with Jesus Christ, but also helped us strengthen our own marriage."

"This weekend helped us grow closer together as a coaching couple and encouraged us to provide a positive Christian example for the youth in our community"

"The Coaches Marriage Weekend reminded us of how much we love each other and how much we need each other."

Guest Speaker

Randy and Carolyn Allen

Randy is currently the head football coach at Highland Park High School in Dallas, Texas. He has served as a head football coach for 34 years and with a career record of 327-80-6, has the 6th most wins in the history of Texas high school football. Coach Allen's belief in the power of faith and integrity in the lives of players and their communities, led him to write, Coaching by The Book – The Purpose and Passion of a High School Coach (2005), and Coaching Character (2011).

Carolyn is the author of The Coaches Wife (1997, 2006). She has been the featured speaker for FCA and coaches' wives events in Tennessee, Colorado, Louisiana, South Carolina, and Texas. Connecting and encouraging coaches' wives are her goals. Carolyn managed the "home turf" full time, later coordinated a wellness program, taught first grade, and currently serves as a docent at the George W. Bush Presidential Center. She and Randy are blessed with two children, Zac and Ashley.

and Worship Leader

Steve Wulf

Steve possesses a lifelong interest in music and pursued those interests in his studies at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln. He began his worship leader experience at his home church in Denver, Colorado where he led the worship music and taught bible classes. Steve is currently the Music Director at North Pointe Community Church in Lincoln, Nebraska. He has led music worship at conferences, special events, and has opened for national Christian music artists, Phillips, Craig, and Dean. Steve is the father of two daughters, Tifini and Bethani. Among other things, Steve is a certified scuba diver. His favorite activities include spending time with his grandson and vacationing with his family.

Why you and your spouse should attend the Coaches Marriage Weekend:

- Learn how the whole family can be involved in coaching
- Get new ideas to use in coaching and interacting with student-athletes
- Establish goals towards making your marriage better
